ANNUAL BIRTHDAY DINNER OF MASONIC HOME OF PENNSYLVANIA

Managers of the Home, at Broad and Ontario Streets, to Hold Dinner and Concert on the Lawn Tomorrow Night. Other Entertainments.

THE managers of the Masonic Home of Pennsylvania have sent out invitations for the annual "birthday dinner" tomorrow at 6 o'clock at the Home, Broad and Ontario streets. The dinner will be followed by a concert on the lawn at 8 o'clock by the Lu Lu Temple Band, which will be open to the public. The August birthday dinner was inaugurated more than 25 years ago by the late General Louis Wagner (president of the home from the time of its founding in 1881 until his death in 1910 in honor of all those connected with the institution who were born in August. At that time the list included General Wagner, Mrs. Mary H. Babbs, then matron, several of the board of managers and many of the aged residents. The number was included Mr. George W. Kendrick, Jr., then vice president, who was born the last day of July. The invitations are limited owing to the capacity of the home dining room. The home was opened in 1881 in a rented house and had one aged resident. It has grown to be an institution known throughout the country. In 1886 the adjoining large double house was purchased and the two buildings united into one. Since then a chapel has been added. There are 88 residents, and the officers for 1915 are: Mr. George W. Kendrick, Jr., president; Mr. Stockton Bates, vice president; Mr. George D. Whitcomb, treasurer; Mr. Robert J. Spratt, secretary; and Mr. William A. Withers, assistant secretary. The managers are: Messrs. Daniel J. Bishop, Walter T. Bradley, Charles Chipman, W. Dreyfuss, J. Harvey H. Hubbard, J. E. M. Kiecher, W. F. Kendrick, Franklin L. Lyle, Samuel Lamond, L. McCauley, Joseph L. Mann, John G. Morris, Edward W. Patton, Adam H. Schmeil, B. Frank Siegart, George J. Vandegrift.

From 3 until 5 o'clock Friday last Miss Dorothy Whitecar celebrated her 4th birthday by giving a party to all her little friends at the home of her parents, 653 Angora terrace. Ice cream, cake and candy were served to the little ones, and after playing games and cracking and pulling balloons each little guest was given a memento of the occasion. Miss Dorothy is the little girl who had the honor of presenting "Bill" Reeves, the Lubin comedian, with a bouquet of choice garden vegetables on board the United States battleship Alabama last Wednesday evening. Among the guests were Mrs. John Dick, Miss Mayna Dick, Miss Minnie Brown, Miss Beale Conrad, Miss Catherine Jackson, Master Thomas Brerton, Master Harry Douglas, Master Robert Green, Miss Claudia Huntington, Miss Mildred Murphy, Miss Betty Brerton, Miss Beatrice Leamy, Master John D. Whitecar, Jr.

Miss Anna Z. Steiger, of 1012 South Reese street, was given a surprise party last week. Refreshments were served, and souvenir bouquets were given the guests. During the evening the betrothal of Miss Steiger and Mr. Samuel Friedman, of Chicago, was announced.

A watermelon party was celebrated last week at the home of Miss Anna Gold. Among those present were Miss Gold, Miss Friedman, Miss Harrison, Miss Snyderman, Miss Winick, Miss Nurck, Miss Pearl, Miss Shlensky, Miss Bernan, the Misses Silverman and Miss Fischer. Mr. Miller, Mr. Mann, Mr. Gunner, Mr. Cherry, Mr. Mogul, Mr. Lev, Mr. Simon, Mr. Schvan, Mr. Bernstein, Mr. Weiss, Dr. Sternthal, Mr. Friedberg, Mr. Shlensky and Mr. Kates.
